A Summary

Jesus, Our Question AND / Or Answer
AND / Or Outcomes

Page One - A Context for Humanity was provided with the Old Testament as written by Moses. A Historical context. And a principal context giving humanity an express-able knowledge of principle content. The History included origins to Humanity, and rationale that explains the chronic difficulties of mnkind. In the old -testaments resolutions to the chronic problems of m-n kind were not provided. Humanity seemed doomed to toil hard till certain death on Earth. The Earthly claim to dominion with ownership of intelligence offering them no relief. Moses pointed out this ownership was seriously flawed, by Humanities ownership of the broken knowledge system, "the Tree of Knowledge and Good and Evil". Mathematics documents this knowledge system as being the Earthly expression of expression Knowledge methodology. Where the only possible return from this intelligence and kingdom were ever diminishing and with the only possible result a non-express-able and terminal event(s) and serie(s). This is the only outcome provided in the Old Testament, with this principal and principle knowledge.

Page Two - A Human answer was foreseen as the only possible resolution to this chronic, unforgiveable misfortune. A Jewish Messiah.

offered to the dilemma answer documented in the Bible Old Testament - The Life of Jesus as documented in the New Testament. His testimonies, miracles, Life AND Death as witnessed and told. From this we can determine what Jesus meant as being "The Way, The Truth and The Life". Jesus also gave more information explaining how he was the Principal Father, Son of G-d, and Holy Ghost. With verbal metaphors, descriptions, testimony, miracles on how this could be, was, and always will be. On retrospect we might also say he is our Rationale, Analysis AND Outcome(s). Which can be represented mathematically as a statement of Principal AND/Or Principal Open Domain. Mathematically this Jesus Principality as a 1 AND / Or 0 as object(s) expressed/nonexpressed within recognized Earthly Math -Systems, can give us access to the Biblical "Tree of Life". All such stated object(s) are said to be feasible.
